LIGNOLOC® is BECK's innovative wooden nail system that replaces conventional metal fasteners with highly densified beech wood nails installed using pneumatic tools. Impact heat activates the wood's natural lignin, creating a durable wood-to-wood bond.

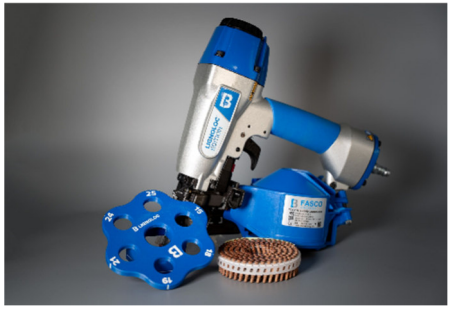

As all connection elements remain wood-based, structures can be dismantled at the end of their service life and materials separated by type, supporting circular construction and recycling.

Used in CLT production, timber engineering, façades, interiors, furniture, pallets and crates, LIGNOLOC® provides low thermal conductivity, corrosion resistance and improved fire performance. Certified for Europe and the US, it can reduce CO_2 emissions by up to 66% versus conventional fastening systems.

LIGNOLOC® 是 BECK 集团开发的创新木钉系统，以高密度压缩山毛榉木钉配合专用气动工具，替代传统金属紧固件。钉入过程中产生的冲击热会激活木材天然含有的木质素，从而形成牢固耐久的"木与木"连接。

由于所有连接部件均为木质材料，建筑结构在使用寿命结束后可方便拆解，并按材料类别进行分离回收，支持真正的循环建筑理念。

LIGNOLOC® 广泛应用于 CLT（交叉层压木材）生产、木结构工程、建筑外立面、室内装修、家具制造以及托盘和包装箱生产。与传统金属紧固件相比，其具有更低的导热率、优异的耐腐蚀性能和更好的防火表现。经欧洲和美国相关认证，其生命周期评估表明，与传统紧固系统相比，最高可减少 66% 的二氧化碳排放。
