LOOKING FOR partners

The company was founded in 1929 by the grandfather of the current owner as a sauerkraut manufacturing business. Through the work of his parents, it expanded into an industrial company dedicated to the production of preserved vegetables. Today, Gegenbauer is the smallest producer of specialty vinegars in the world and supplies high-quality wine vinegars and pure fruit vinegars worldwide. In addition, the company has refined balsamic vinegar to create its own sweet house vinegars, fermented according to the principles of balsamic production but without adding any type of additives.
