

Austrian Airlines Travel Regulations

Entry regulations:

Entry regulations can be changed at short notice. Hence, passengers are requested to check the entry regulation of the destination before their flight here.

Based on Austria's policy, a Digital entry form should be filled out prior to the journey by all passengers whose final destination is Austria.

Please note the terms of use. All information is regularly updated and prepared with the greatest possible care to the best of Austrian Airline's knowledge at the time of publication. Due to the fast evolving nature of the countries' responses to the COVID-19 outbreak, we cannot guarantee any accuracy and can assume no liability for the topicality, correctness, completeness or quality of the information provided. Austrian Airlines reserves the right to change information at any time. Austrian Airlines offers links to third party websites only as a courtesy and accepts no responsibility for third-party information.

PCR test requirements for departures from Imam Khomeini Airport:

- If the final destination country needs a negative PCR test, then all passengers must present a negative PCR test at check-in counters in Imam Khomeini Airport
- Negative PCR test must be in English, on Paper with date and time of the test and stamp from a Laboratory
- The test may be provided from all verified laboratories of health ministry
- The proof of the negative Covid-19 test must not be older than 72 hours at the time of entering Austria
- The PCR test shall fit into the respective destination's policies
- If the final destination country accepts vaccinated passengers, then Austrian Airlines will board vaccinated passengers who have completed their vaccination series of BioNTech/Pfizer, Moderna, AstraZeneca, Johnson & Johnson, Sinopharm and Sinovac A proof of vaccination is mandatory.
- Only type of test accepted is PCR Test

Masks:

Please note that as of 15th September 2021, Austrian Airlines only accept FFP2 Masks.